Access to scripts-

If candidates request a copy of their script they must do this in writing to the EO by the JCQ deadline. Alternatively, if a member of staff would like a copy of a student's script for teaching & learning purposes they must first obtain written permission from the student and issue this to the EO by the JCQ deadline.

Enquiries about Results –

The school will initially check for anomalies that might need investigation, but the onus is on the candidate to suggest that there might be a reason for remark. Candidates should discuss their concern with the relevant head of Subject and if an enquiry is to be made the school will liaise with the Exam board as they are not able to deal directly with parents of students. The school will only support requests that are judged as justified by the Head of Centre. If a candidate wishes to proceed with a remark request against the advice of the school the cost must be met by the candidate before the request is sent to the examination board. Candidates must be advised that the mark can go down as well as up and that the original grade is therefore not protected. The candidate must then provide written consent before the remark is requested.

Appeals procedure –

There cannot be an appeal against a remark outcome. Appeals can only be made if it is deemed the original mark scheme was not applied correctly.
